Pastoral Letter - February 2019

Following retirement from full time ministry I have had chance to re-acquaint myself with attending regular worship as a member of a congregation. In the early days of visiting each of the churches in our joint benefice, I scanned the walls to read the memorials and plaques commemorating the great and the good of each parish.

Such memorials remind us we build upon the work of those who have gone before us. In each of our churches successive generations of Christians have responded to the need to own Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour and, as a result, to grow in the knowledge of the Christian faith, to witness to the community in which God had placed them and to share God's overflowing love with those in need.

In turn, we who currently sit in the pews each week, are exposed to the same call from God: to own Jesus Christ as our personal Lord and Saviour and then once His, to grow in the knowledge of our faith, to witness to the community in which He has placed us and to care for others as an expression of God's all-encompassing love.

Whatever the changes and chances of the world, whatever the world's view of the church may be; no matter how good or not so good the witness of the previous generation, we, this generation of Christians, have been chosen by God to fulfil our calling to grow, to witness and to care, all in the Name of the one who died and rose again, Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. The call is all-inclusive, no exceptions; each Christian is called, equipped and given opportunity to fulfil their God-given calling both individually and corporately.

To grow in the knowledge of our faith will generate assurance, challenges and revelations. As we grow in our understanding our view of the world, of each other and ourselves, will align with that of God.

To witness to our community will produce surprises as we experience just what God can achieve through us. Witnessing will also bring opportunities, strengthening and testing, revealing the value we place upon the message we have received.

To care with the compassion that our Father shows us will foster compassion, stir up empathy, create time and develop prayer.

If we rise to answer His call, if we continue to serve the Lord and His people in this way, we will ensure, when successive generations look back on our efforts, they will say that we were faithful to our calling and in turn be encouraged by our example.

If we decline to heed His call then future generations will say we were no more than caretakers of buildings which we used for our own purposes, and as a result, eventually became museums.

All God asks of us is to be faithful, to take up His call, to rely upon Him for our inspiration, guidance and strength. If we do, we will not find Him wanting as countess generations of saints of old bear witness.

May the same be said of us..

In Him,

Harry (Welch)

Note from Jeannie Atkinson:

"Raymond Atkinson died 15th December 2018 and will be sadly missed by his family, Jeannie, Richard, Emma and grandchildren Dan, Sam and Ewan."

Getting to know Jesus better...

This month we are continuing to look at John, chapter 4

English Standard Version of the Bible

Notes by Matt Rich, pastor of Bethany Christian Church, Ulverston

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labour. Others have laboured, and you have entered into their labour."

Jesus wasn't really saying to them that he didn't need food to eat - he was trying to get them to see that some things in life are more satisfying than focusing on bodily needs like food.

What really satisfies you? Is it when you have eaten a good meal? Is it when you feel good about yourself for making someone else happy? - None of these things are wrong in themselves, but Jesus wants us all to realise that the thing that is most important in life and most satisfying is following God and doing what He wants rather than just what we feel like doing!

Jesus is also explaining to them that His followers are a team - everyone plays an important in achieving the final goal.

Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did." So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days.

And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world."

After the two days he departed for Galilee. (For Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honour in his own hometown.) So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the feast. For they too had gone to the feast.

Jesus spoke with one lady in that area (which we read about last month) and she then talked to other people about her belief in Jesus. When did you last talk to someone who doesn't follow Jesus about your belief in Him?

Often when we tell others about Jesus it is just one of the steps in that person's spiritual journey to discover more about God. That is why it is also good to encourage them to read the Bible, so they can find out more for themselves. Like we have just read in this section, it enables them to hear directly what God is saying to them.

If you have a smartphone or a tablet that takes apps then why not download the meetJ app where you can watch a short video and read more about Jesus.

Haverthwaite Surgery Patient Participation Group

At the recent meeting of the group the Greenodd Service was discussed. Due to a poor take up of service on some days and staff considerations the times of this service will have to change. From MARCH 1st there will be no medication collection or Doctors appointments on Monday or Wednesday.

There will be collection service on FRIDAYS from 11.30 to 12.30 and when Dr Davies returns from maternity leave there will be GP appointments if required.

Prescriptions may still be ordered by the website, by telephone or by hard copy or in person. Medication ordered by 5pm on Tuesday will be ready for collection on Friday.

The "COFFEE AND CHAT "sessions will return on Wednesday 20th February and continue on the 3rd Wednesday each month until July. Everyone whether practise patients or not and whatever age is very welcome to join us at these free events.

Children in Distress 5p Collection - THANK YOU!

The 5p collection this year raised an amazing £392. We will be able to continue to sponsor 2 children again this year. The extra money will provide a birthday and Christmas present for them.

We have sponsored Andreea for many years but she has now turned 18 and has moved to a centre that is more suited to her needs. I will let you know when I get information through about the new child that we will sponsor. Alexandru is going from strength to strength both physically and socially, and has settled well into his new environment.

Please continue to collect your 5p coins, and the next collection date will be December 2019. Thanks again for your ongoing generosity.

Helen Courtman.

Conserving Coniston & Crake Project Update

2018 - A year in Review

So briefly the project has installed/agreed on nearly 9 km of fencing, created almost 9 sq.km of riparian habitats with buffer strips, de-culverted just under 500 m of buried watercourses, opened up 2 km of spawning areas with the installation of a fish easement, involved over 200 students and staff in freshwater activities, made and put up 30 nest boxes, engaged over 650 adults and children at 20+ events, shows, stands, walks and talks. Volunteers have given the equivalent of 173 days of work, cleaned approximately 40 sq. metres of gravel and helped restore and protect 100 sq. metres of reedbed.

First activities of 2019

Tree Planting

We're also going to be planting over 200 trees at a variety of locations in the next few weeks where we've carried out fencing and created buffer strips. Dates/times/locations to be confirmed. If you're interested in helping, then please get in touch.

2nd February: Blawith Common & Beacon Tarn Walk at 10am

A morning's walk of approximately 4.5miles to the Beacon via the tarn and back down to Sliving Moss, to celebrate World Wetlands Day. Boots/wellies essential with suitable outdoor clothing.
Meet: Small layby near Crake Valley Caravan Park (Grid ref: SD287900) Parking at Brown Howe or in small laybys on A5084 between Crake Valley CP & Brown Howe.
Please let us know if you're going to join us in case of any changes or cancellation due to inclement weather.

16th February Nest Box Workshop, Greenodd Village Hall.

Drop in between 10am & 2.30pm to make a nest box for the project and one to take home and do your bit for wildlife in National Nest Box Week. Free.

1st Leven Valley(St Anne's) Scout Group

Are there any previous Beaver, Cub or Scout Leaders in this area who would like to become part of a Group again? Training is also provided if this could be a new interest or activity for you. Our Scout Section will close at the end of June if a leader cannot be found. Marguerite Calvert 01229 885498

Notes from Egton cum Newland WI

Our first meeting of the year was not as we anticipated! Having raced through the business part it then became apparent that we had no speaker- through no fault of her own. A misunderstanding with a capital M. Anyway it gave members the chance for an earlier brew than usual and a good after Christmas catch up, thus allowing time for committee to control the panic and come up with some ideas. This we did and it resulted in a really good evening of members contributing and enjoying themselves.

Our book club read was "The Night Manager" by John Le Carre which over the busy festive season was a bit of a challenge as it had nearly 500 pages of small print. Our next read is a true story and a lot shorter- "The Optician of Lampedusa".

On February 12th John Walker one of the Cumbrian Blood Bike riders is coming to tell us all about the charity and we will be handing him a handsome cheque as they have been our chosen charity for the past year. This year members have voted to support St. Mary's Hospice another very worthy cause.

We aim to hold an OPEN meeting soon (so that menfolk can join us) when Geoff Holme has agreed to talk to us about The Sankey Photographic Collection. Those of you who have resided in the area for sometime will no doubt have seen some of his works in the press or indeed in book form. If you are interested in local history (eg. buildings, transport and industry) from the early/mid 1900's then this will be a must for you. More details later.

Ladies you are welcome to join us at 7.30pm. in Greenodd village hall on the second Tuesday of the month bar August. We will ensure that you are looked after. From the W.I team
